

Privacy Notice for Parents and Guardians

The International School of Lyon

Privacy notice for students

Under The European Union's (EU) General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) you have the right to be informed how The International School of Lyon (ISL) uses any personal data we hold about you. In compliance with this law all individuals whose data we process will be provided with a privacy notice.

Under the terms laid down by GDPR, ISL is a "data controller" as we determine the purpose of and means by which your data is processed.

Our Lead Data Controller is Mr David Johnson (See contact details below)

The personal data we hold

We process data concerning our employees and individuals who volunteer at the school. The data that we collect, store and process includes but is not restricted to:

- Your contact details
- Your Employment information
- Date of birth, marital status and sex
- Bank account details
- Photographs
- CCTV images

Why we use this data

We use this data to help ISL run the school, including to:

- To receive payments for services provided
- To contact you in an emergency
- To look after the educational needs and wellbeing of your child

Our Legal Basis for using this data

We only collect data GDPR allows us to. We will use your information where:

- Fulfil a contract we have entered into with you
- We need to comply with a legal obligation
- It is our duty in the public interest

Sometimes, we may also use your personal data where:

- You have given us permission to use it in a certain way
- We need to protect your interests or the interests of others.

- We have a legitimate interest in processing this data

Where you have given us the authorization to use your personal data, you may withdraw this at any time. When we ask for permission, we will also make it clear how this permission can be withdrawn.

Collecting this information

How we store this data

Your personal data is stored on site in secure locations around the school, including password protected, restricted access servers. Some data is held on 3rd party, secure, encrypted, ISL dedicated GDPR compliant websites.

We keep personal data about you while you are at this school and for legal purposes, we will hold this data after you have left. All data we hold has a retention schedule applied and is regularly reviewed, archived or deleted.

Data Sharing

We do not share personal information about you with anyone outside the school without permission from you, unless the law or our policies permit it.

Where it is legally required, or necessary under data protection law, we may share personal about you with:

- Examining bodies
- Our regulator (IBO)
- Suppliers and service providers - so they can provide services we have contracted them for
- Financial organisations
- Regional and national government organisations
- Our auditors
- Health authorities
- Health and social welfare organisations
- Security organisations
- Police forces, courts, tribunals
- Professional advisors and consultants

Your Rights

How to access personal information about you

As a “data subject” you may make an application to the school to see the data we hold about you and obtain an explanation of how we use it.

If we hold information about you, we will:

- Give you a description of it
- Tell you why we are holding it, and how long we are keeping it for
- Explain how we got it, if not from you
- Tell you who it has been shared with, or who it will be shared with
- Let you know if we are using the data to make any automated decisions (decisions being made by a computer or machine, rather than a person)
- Give you a copy of the information

You may ask us to send your personal information to another organisation electronically in certain circumstances.

If you want to make a request please contact our GDPR Data Controller Mr David Johnson.

Your rights over this data

You have rights over how your data is used and kept safe, including the right to:

- Say that you don't want it to be used if this would cause you, or is causing harm or distress
- Stop it being used to send you marketing materials
- Say that you don't want it used to make automated decisions
- Have it corrected, deleted or destroyed if it is wrong, or restrict our use of it.
- Claim compensation if the data protection rules are broken and it harms you in some way

Complaints

We take any complaints about our collection and use of personal data very seriously.

If you think that our collection or use of personal information is unfair, misleading or inappropriate, or have any other concerns about our data processing, please raise this issue with us in the first instance.
